Professor Brawn

met up with cynthia to catch up. decided to go to novena coz its near both of us. She chose Professor Brawn...

apparently this place is a bit like Joan Bowen whereby they provide employment for autistic teenagers.

we both went for the set dinner.

soup of the day was mushroom soup...

comes with choice of drinks of orange or lime...

cynthia went for the fish & chips...

i had the chicken in truffle sauce...

the chicken is pretty good!
