

My Humble Life

28 Monday Nov 2011

Posted by myhumblelife in Uncategorized

Food

Angela recommended this cafe, after hearing good reviews from her colleague.

I happened to know this famous cafe from local media. It was founded by a MP and her husband, dream to provide job opportunities for their son and other autism children as well as raise awareness to the public.

Awesome ambience.

You will be captivated by the drawings / paintings / decorations, mostly done by the autism children.

I bet the staff and boss have put in lots of effort in this cafe.

Their service crew is pretty friendly as well, made us feel like home 😊

Decent and generous portion of food.

Side bites : Wedges and Calamari

MJ's choice – Pork Ribs

My choice – Miso Cod Fish with Sweet Potato Mash

Angela's choice – Sirloin Steak

Simin's choice – Rossetti with Sausage

Weibao's choice – Spaghetti

Cafe serve New Zealand Natural ice creams. Good dessert ~

I knew Angela during my Secondary school life, and we went to the same Poly as well as Uni. Simin and I were Poly course mate, and we went to the same Uni.

Guang Wei who had a last minute job assignment missed out our gathering this time round.

Is great to know that my Uni friends are all doing well.

Do give Professor Brawn Cafe some support. Is really meaningful to be able to help them fulfill their dreams of encouraging children with learning disability.

To visit Professor Brawn Cafe,

Boat Quay Branch — 10 Circular Road Singapore 049366 Tel: (65) 6532 0607

Novena Branch — #02-78/79 Novena Square, 238 Thomson Road Singapore 307683 Tel: (65) 6253 4650

<http://myhumblelife.wordpress.com/?s=professor+brawn&search=Go>