I would like to express my gratitude for yet another nice dinner outing during the weekend at Novena Square with my dear friends. One of our dear friend who was still working through the long weekend there at Velocity suggested this newly opened Professor Brawn Cafe for our dinner and indeed it was a good suggestion.

The fish and chips was tender and fresh and just look at the succulent pork ribs! I think one of our botak friend in New Zealand must be salivating now..hee hee hee.~)

A big thank you again to our generous Indigo friend who also gave us a T-shirt each when we jokingly said we wanted the red and striking T-shirt he was wearing for work. Wow! Just look at the abundance that we are getting! Thank you, thank you thank you...Huat Ah!

Quote of the Day :-

In Life, we cannot choose the direction of the winds but we can always adjust our sails...
